NATIONAL SUPPORT CENTRE FOR AGRICULTURE

(KOWR) is a state-owned institution supervised by the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development. It was established to support agri-food producers and exporters and the development of innovative agriculture, as well as to improve the quality of life in rural areas. The role of the KOWR is to build a positive image and recognition of Polish agri-food products abroad under the slogan "POLAND TASTES GOOD." The KOWR supports Polish entrepreneurs in the agri-food industry in their efforts to expand into new markets by organizing trade missions and national stands at food trade fairs abroad.

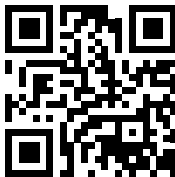

The logo for "Poland tastes good" features the text "Poland" in a large, white, cursive font, with "tastes good" in a smaller, white, cursive font below it. The text is set against a red circular background. The entire logo is positioned on a background of stylized, rolling green hills in various shades of green.
